Customs Notice No 8 /2009
Launching a Service to Non-Commercial Clients

In accordance with strategic plan, Department objectives, Reform and Modernization Program (RMP) and for facilitating and simplifying Customs Procedures through enabling clients to process their transactions with the Department electronically by using Customs Clearance System Mirsal 2.

The following has been decided:

Article (1)

Dubai Customs will launch at Port Rashid Customs Service Center declaration services which will use Mirsal 2 rules and standards for declarations by non commercial clients.

Article (2)

The service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (3)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (4)

Revenue Department

Article (5)

Complex CUSTOMS ADMINISTRATION

Article (6)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (7)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (8)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (9)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (10)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (11)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (12)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (13)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (14)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (15)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (16)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (17)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (18)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (19)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (20)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (21)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (22)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (23)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (24)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (25)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (26)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (27)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (28)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (29)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (30)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (31)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (32)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (33)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (34)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (35)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (36)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (37)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (38)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.

Article (39)

Alternatively non-commercial Clients may declare their goods electronically using an authorized Customs Broker registered with Dubai Customs without the need to visit a Customs Service Center.

Article (40)

The Service shall be implemented at the Department level in all other Customs Service Centers by the end of the first quarter of 2010.
This Notice shall come into force as from First August 2009.

Ahmed Butti Ahmed
Director General